New Souls

It was mentioned in the previous volume that an advanced race was incarnating. This started taking place in 2006. Many souls who are born from that time onward will be far more intelligent, knowing how to access technology at an early age. However, a devious streak will be within and it'll be noticeable that they are a wily bunch. What is in a parents genetics, passes down thus why they say, "Sons pay for the inequities of their fathers". Generational traits are handed down leading to the acting out of the choices inspired by them. And those brought up in the 70's, 80's, and 90's had a great programming of sinful temptations resulting from television. The new generation has the ability to make positive changes in their advanced consciousness but will the influences in the world around them, point them into that direction? Parents are the key to how they grow, if they strive to records the them in virtue. Many of the souls are born here from the other 3D world of Zeta Reticulum.

Angelic News

The heavens have graciously given us enough foresight to keep us going, as far as what to be aware of in terms of the worldwide disasters. Now it's time to know how they will help. The major Archs, Michael, Raphael, Gabriel, and Uriel will do all that they can as masters of the elements used for global reckoning, to also safeguard individuals and entire families that they remain safe. They can't promise that material things will be safe or not undergo damage throughout all of this... but they will ensure that many still maintaining faith in heaven, will live. Many will see their homes damaged and experience financial pains and say that they had wished that they weren't alive. Saying this out of frustration and struggle, they should remain grateful of this: You will still have your life and your loved ones. As far as material things, even if it seems desperate at the moment, those things can be replaced. Seek comfort with one another, in prayer and at your larger spiritual community if trustworthy. The arch's will also provide escape safely from areas of trial of everyone of belief, if they are steadfast in heeding the warnings and not supposing that warnings will just be false alarms. The heavens are also leaving trails of breadcrumbs for everyone to be informed. Its going to be a trying time but do not feel dismayed. The only way to rebuild is to deconstruct. A city can not be built upon the ruins of another former city. Instead, even the ruins have to be cleared. The ascension is finally coming! The arch's help by trying to merge those who are chosen in this world... to ascend into a higher vibratory state of consciousness, learn how to exist in it, and to

Catching up...

Don't forget what to expect upcoming into the near and distant future! Lord Michael reminds us...

- Domino Earthquakes triggered
- Disaster in Texas
- Enormous Hurricane
- Crop issues
- Trade war
- Economic collapse
- Political Chaos
- Political figure in danger
- Exposed important figures for crimes.
- Power outages
- Raging fires, one of great magnitude
- Large hurricanes
- Talks of blood drinking, incest, bestiality, and pedophilia.
- Promotion of satan worship and abandonment of many religions.
- Emergency funds for disaster relief not enough.
- Infected waters all over the world
- A bombshell dropped in September

Keep in mind that with the oncoming chain of Earthquakes that many places are in danger. California especially. September 7 or 8, there will be another.

Meteorites, and internet trouble will occur in September as well!

understand the way that the mind, heart and soul will operate from being in that new vibration of living. There there's much to understand about this because things will change greatly for those individuals. That is why you have a teacher here, that you can rely on greatly to help walk you through everything. For those that reach it, they will still live in joy and happiness, a perfected state of mind, no more pain or sorrow, as a result of having had this beautiful change take place. No matter what is going on...

However it is important to know that as the chosen select, merge into a higher state of consciousness... That lower vibrational souls move in. There has been a very long community of souls reincarnating here from the very beginning. And some of them are destined to return home. As they do, there will be room for new souls to begin their life and journey here in the 3-D reality to rebuild it. However there are groups of very negative spirits who are trying get in instead and many of them have... through portals having been opened deliberately by scientists that work for many underground projects that are endorsed and supported by the military and other administrations especially associated with the UN. Do not be fooled that even though many are against one another in different political powers in other countries, when it comes to seeing worldwide agenda, they do work closely together and help financially support projects. That is why the United States and the Russian space stations always work together. They work together and other things too. Much of what you see is just an illusion in the world today. The angels want to help safeguard many people from having spiritual walkins of a lower vibrational quality. Of course having been otherworldly at some point and having been on the spiritual side of things too, they will have some kind of ability to enhance your psychic powers but only to a certain limit. It is not worth allowing them to come into your vessel with you because they will take over and cause great devastation not only within yourself in your life. The scary thing about this is that you may not even know that it's happening when it does. You will feel just like yourself but start to experience a lot of agitation and upset. Then you'll start to notice that you're having cravings or things that you've never had cravings for before. "We will protect you if you place your faith and devotion in us", they say.

Other signs....

There will come a time when you will see that the daytime will appear as night. Be aware that the gravitational force beneath you is tugging way little more greatly. For higher vibrational souls this will make you feel very lethargic and tired very easily. Everyone is being advised to take off your shoes and stand in a shady place outside just so that you can ground yourself a little bit better with the vibration the earth is he meeting just for that moment in time to feel a little better. Earth vibration has lowered, not hired. How could it be higher when so many global disasters are showing signs of distress? Gaia has not grown into higher vibrational state, instead the vibration is lowered significantly. Because of that, many people are feeling the effects physically. Even those not in the Ascension process. Awakening is not just expanding your worldly or earthly spiritual knowledge. Awakening is far different. It is very important for people to start learning what the difference is in the stop believing lies sold by trends. Wake up and see what's really happening. The earth is having trouble and or things are going to suffer with the earth because they are a part of the earth. The two go hand-in-hand. Oxygen levels are going to drop, weather is going to be disastrous, water is going to be infected, and much of the land is going to go through a lot of changing. Some of it will go underwater, some of it will crumble. Volcanoes really wrapped and there will be a need for mankind to come to a realization that change at a very real level as needed. Not to just talk about it or to promote it when it's not happening yet. But instead, to get out there and hold hands together in an attempt to raise the vibration of ours in love. It's not exclude anyone or allow jealousy, competition or indifferent, to get in the way. If not, then time as you know it Will change forever and so will the land that you live in. All of this for money too. Why is it that mankind could not realize that the things that they were doing would certainly cause disaster to their world on epic proportion's. Why was an insignificant piece of paper that was valueless to begin with, more important than sustaining humanity's life? But even I am heated for the words that I say. And you can hate me all that you want to. Because I'll never stop. Because I am truth, and I am a representative of the living light that still remains.

The time is now:

Everyone today is living as if the world will be gone tomorrow. If you have ever heard it asked, "what would you do if you had 24 hours before your town was bombed to pieces", then you will know exactly why the world is in such a state of selfishness and greed. Imagine if your city was told that it would be gone 24 hours from now, what would you be doing? Many people would have very different selfish things to say. I have heard it said that some would have sex with all of the people that they have ever desire does sex with. Some have said that they would just go out and get high, some said they would get drunk. There were others who said that they would rob a bank. There are many people who have wanted to go skydiving, or do something spontaneous and crazy. So people today without realizing it, are going out and trying to fulfill their greatest material wishes, dreams, pleasures and desires. And it's being so greatly promoted to! If you look at television and media today, it is full of ads and commercials that are just throwing your Temptations in your face. Because they want to distract you with the pleasures of the physical world while there is a very deep spiritual matter taking place. If you had 24 hours before your city was gone, many people would want to move to another city of course, which is the obvious answer. But what if you couldn't escape it? Think of all of the riots and fires that would take place from people just panicking and chaos? And that's what's happening with your world. There is so much chaos going on because everyone is in a state of panic. Everybody can feel a deep sense of anxiety, but they don't know exactly what it is. Even atheists know that something is very very wrong in the world today and that there is something coming, unseen but expected. Make your symbolic "24 hours" count. In other words, while these things are taking place, strive to be the better person and reach your ascension. This way you were not affected by them in the ways that others will be negatively. Even though the world is not going to disappear, does it really have to be hit with a huge asteroid that makes mankind extinct, in order for there to be global devastation? No. It exists within every man, the desire to fix fill what is happening today through their own actions and deeds. is through mankind and selfishness, in consideration and greed that these things are happening. And even though we are behind the scenes making it happen on an energetic scale, it would not have been taking place had not mankind manifested it to begin with. If the world were full of good thoughts and good deeds, then blessings will come to earth instead. And the very scary thing about this all is that, the darker forces that have caused mankind to manifest all of this, are being worshiped and praised. The same exact forces that are responsible for rape, murder and many other darker nature deeds... People are submitting to them thinking that it will keep them safe and it won't. For the dark is not loyal to anyone.
